Hello!

Welcome to a very British issue of Knit Now! Can you believe that this is our fourth annual Best of British issue? It seems like only a few months ago that I was planning our first! That was back in 2012, and it was a real challenge – albeit one which I enjoyed, because I believe that celebrating British yarn is a really important part of my job. At the time, I struggled to find any widely available British yarns – of all the big yarn companies, only Rowan was producing a 100% British yarn. Luckily though, thanks to increasing demand from knitters, more and more British yarn has become available – including the most recent additions from Wendy and King Cole, both of which I've used in this issue.

So here we are, four years later, and this issue is absolutely crammed full of British goodness! Our designers have truly outdone themselves once again. This issue starts with our British Blooms collection, which is a riot of colour and proves that British yarns can be bright and beautiful. I adore Anna Elliott's Rosehip cardigan (page 13) and Amy Pickard's stunning Pashley wrap (page 18) but as a lover of quick colourwork projects, I think I'll be casting on Ella Austin's Flora armwarmers (page 16) first.

There's also plenty to read this issue. Our interview this month is with my favourite Rowan designer, Sarah Hatton. I love Sarah's sense of style and her knack for combining beautiful textures with flattering shapes. I've also chatted to some of the people responsible for producing some of the best British yarns (page 50), which only made me want to knit more things! If you're not sure which British yarn to try next, take a look at the Review (page 70), where my knitting group gives you the lowdown.

I hope all of this inspires you to explore the best of what Britain has to offer! Happy knitting,

Kate_x

This month
we love...

Meet the team

We asked our designers to recommend the best British yarns to try

SARAH MENEZES

My very favourite yarn is Wendy Ramsdale because I have a bit of a thing for unplied yarn. It comes in some beautiful colours and it's so soft. I also love Jamieson's of Shetland's Spindrift for the enormous range of colours available and for the beautiful natural, uneven texture it has. Generally I adore any yarn that smells of sheep!

JACQUI HARDING

We are lucky to have so many brilliant yarns. West Yorkshire Spinners is a great commercial yarn company, Woolyknit has soft-handling yarns in great colours, and I love John Arbon, especially its Viola range. Coldharbour Mill is amazing value and, of course, there are the Shetland yarn brokers with their fluffy woollen spun yarns in an incredible range of colours.

BROWNEYEDBABS

I really love yarn from Strathearn Fleece & Fibre. I was able to visit its farm while on holiday and couldn't stop myself buying a few bright skeins of yarn as a treat. I also like the Wendy Ramsdale I used this issue so much that I've actually bought more in the same colour to make myself a sweater! It's very soft, warm and beautifully coloured.

YAK in Brighton

After the success of Unwind Brighton last year, the southern seaside town is taking its next step in becoming a yarnie destination with the opening of its only independent yarn store. YAK (or Yarn and Knitting) has been selling online for a while, bringing together a mixture of thoughtfully sourced yarn brands and independent dyers and spinners for something just a little bit special. February 7th sees the grand opening of its bricks-and-mortar store. Owner Kate Metherell says she can't wait for the shop to become the hub for Brighton's knitting community, offering a place to buy coveted yarn, knit together and, well, yak about knitting. Need directions? Head to www.yamandknitting.com for all the information.

Counting sheep

Yan Tan Tether is a new pattern from Yorkshire designer Anne Kingstone. She has given exclusive rights to this pattern to the Knitting & Crochet Guild to raise funds to help it continue its charitable programme of education, innovation and preservation in knitting. The pattern is inspired by the traditional sheep-counting system used in the Yorkshire Dales, immortalised in a song after which this pattern takes its name. Made from British fibres from Blacker Yarns, it's a perfect fit for our best of British issue. Buy the design via Ravelry and to find out more about the Knitting & Crochet Guild, head to www.kcguild.org.uk

Colours of Yorkshire

baa ram ewe's Titus yarn is the equivalent of a tour of the best of Yorkshire, as every colourway takes inspiration from iconic places and exports of the great county – from trips to Filey Beach to the taste of Parkin cake. This year, the team has launched three new shades: silvery Crucible, inspired by South Yorkshire's steel industry; deep blue Endeavour, named after Captain Cook's famous ship; and our personal favourite, Goathland. Taking its shade from the beautiful heather in North York Moors National Park, we'll always be thinking of this dreamy landscape when we see this colourway! VIVACIOUS VOLUME I

By Fyberspates

Collections often aim to have something for everyone – a few cable knits and some colourwork for whatever your mood – but this new set of patterns in Fyberspates Vivacious yarn is unashamedly all about simple stitches. As they put it, it's about the 'comfort that just the right amount of stockinette can bring'. While you might imagine this to restrict the design process, by roping in exciting British talent in form of Rachel Coopey and Belinda Boaden the company has achieved a varied collection of 10 patterns that lets the Vivacious yarn shine brightly.

THE SHETLAND TRADER 2

By Gudrun Johnston

We could get lost in the atmospheric photographs of Gudrun Johnston's second Shetland-inspired collection, shot in the house on the island which originally inspired her colour choices. She represents Shetland well, creating authentic designs inspired by her own heritage as an islander. Gudrun uses fabulous British yarn, such as Jamieson & Smith, Jamieson's of Shetland and Shetland Organic, alongside American beauties, such as Brooklyn Tweed and Quince & Co, hinting at her dual citizenship, as she now lives in the USA. Our favourite? Belmont – a beautiful moss green cardigan, which we'd wear non-stop and comes in a healthy range of sizes.

From £13.25* from www.ravelry.com

ROWAN MAGAZINE 57

By Rowan

As always, it is hard to judge the latest offering from Rowan as a whole, but we can love each of the individual collections that make up the magazine. The first, a feminine collection of summery knits, finds inspiration in a subtle 1950s vibe, meaning cropped jackets and cinched waists, while Relic is a celebration of colourwork in combinations that recall Rowan's designs of decades past. Our pick this time is the Essentials collection, which is worked in varying shades of blue that allow the inventiveness of shape and texture to really sing.

The juxtaposition of the pastel floral pattern and the simple lines of the shape make these armwarmers pretty and modern. They're perfect for cheering you up in early spring when the cold weather can seem to drag. Flora is also a very relaxing knit, with an afterthought thumb so that the colourwork rounds are uninterrupted

Hints and tips

- The medium size uses almost all of the 25g MC ball. Be careful to conserve this colour by carrying the yarn up as you work the chart or keeping the ends quite short. If your tension is different you may need to purchase another ball or alternatively use a different colour for the thumbs – green would be nice!

Tiptoe Through the Tulips

Amy Pickard's Pashley Wrap is a beautiful one-skein knit for lace lovers

Start knitting...

The wrap is worked in two non-identical sections and then grafted together.

Section 1

Cast on 82 sts loosely using the long-tail cast on method. To avoid running out of yarn, work from both ends of the ball, with one end over your thumb and the other over your finger. Cut the thumb yarn when cast on is complete.

Knit 1 row.

Work Arbour lace chart or written instructions once in full.

Next Row: K3, [k2tog, yo] twice, k68, [yo,
ssk] twice, k3.

Next Row: K3, p to last 3 sts, k3.

Work tulip lace chart or written instructions once in full.

Next Row: K3, [k2tog, yo] twice, k68, [yo,
ssk] twice, k3.

Next Row: K3, p to last 3 sts, k3. [*]

Work blossom lace chart or written instructions 7 times in full, then rep rows 1-6 once.

Cut yarn, leaving a long tail for grafting.
Leave sts on spare circ needle.

Section 2

Work as for Section 1 to [*]. Work blossom lace chart or written instructions 6 times in full, then rep rows 1-11 once.
Cut yarn.

Finishing: Wet-block both halves to dimensions shown on schematic, leaving live sts on circular needles, blocking out the points of arbour lace border.
Measurements taken from points of border. With WS facing, graft live sts together loosely (try to match the stitch size of the blocked pieces) using tail from first half. Remove any markers as you come to them. Weave in all ends.

Super stitch markers

It can be tricky to keep your place in a complicated pattern, so why not treat yourself to some pretty new stitch markers to help?

Hints and tips

- The best way to do the two-ended long-tail cast on is to wind a centre-pull ball and use the centre end for the strand over the finger and the outside of the ball for the thumb
- This pattern uses every last centimetre of the yarn. To avoid running out, check the tension carefully and keep yarn tails (except the tail for grafting) as short as possible

Emily Ocker circular cast on

This clever cast on lets you knit a top-down beret without an unsightly hole in the middle!

1 Using your main yarn, fold the working end of the yarn over the tail end to form a loop. Leave a reasonable length tail (around 15cm). Hold the loop firmly in your left hand.

2 Insert the crochet hook into the centre of the loop, catch the working yarn and bring it from the behind the loop through to the front.

3 Wrap the working yarn from right to left around the needle and draw the yarn through the loop on the needle as if you were making a double crochet (or US single crochet).

4 Leaving the stitch you have just made on the hook, insert the hook into the front of the loop again, catch the working yarn and draw it through the loop to the front of the work. Wrap the working yarn from right to left around the needle and draw the yarn through just the first loop nearest the hook (leave the earlier stitch on the hook). Two stitches have now been made.

Repeat steps 3 and 4 until you have made the required number of stitches which can then be put onto DPNs. The long tail will be used later to draw the hole closed.

Simple textures make for a stylish hat

Hints and tips

- Use a different-coloured stitch marker to distinguish the end of rnd marker from markers between pattern repeats
- To achieve a comfy, loose cast off, work the cast off with a larger needle
- The easiest way to block a beret is to find a dinner plate the same circumference as the hat at the widest point and block the hat around the plate

Hints and tips

- 💡 If working with DPNs, when you come to knitting the heel of the sock and beg to pick up stitches at each side of the heel flap, pick up these stitches using a new needle as well as st markers to clearly keep these separate. This makes it easy for you to see which part of the heel you are working on
- 💡 A great thing about knitting your own socks! It doesn't matter what shape or size your foot is, this pattern can be altered to your needs. Simply knit the foot from the back of the heel to your required length, leaving 2.5cm for the toe shaping

A week in the life of Sarah Hatton

This month we're celebrating the best of British knitting so we caught up with one of our favourite British designers, Sarah Hatton

Sarah always knew she wanted to work in fashion and has been knitting since she was a child, but even when she was studying at university the idea of becoming a knitwear designer had never occurred to her. Luckily, someone saw the potential in her and offered her a job in the industry. She's now one of the top designers for Rowan. We thought it would be interesting to see what she gets up to in a typical week, so we asked her to keep a diary for us. Here's what happened...

I am quite lucky in that there is no such thing as a normal week for me. The fashion seasons mean sometimes I can spend weeks at a time writing patterns only to not see one again for a few weeks as I move on to designing or styling for a photo shoot.

The past few weeks have however been a proper mix of jobs as I am finishing one season and clearing the decks ready to start the next. I have had one photo shoot for Rowan with another two to get ready for in the next couple of weeks, so there's a lot of preparation going on today. I decided for the shoot this week that I would make dresses for the model to wear – as someone who is not a natural seamstress, this has been an interesting experience! But I think it will look lovely (fingers crossed).

Ida from Rowan Finest

Tuesday

Today I'm thinking ahead and working on mood boards for future collections.

We look at fashion magazines and all the latest fashion trends. I have files of hundreds of tear sheets pulled from magazines and we look at all of these but often it's just instinct. Obviously, I look at street style websites, fashion stores and so on, but sometimes an idea will just pop into your head from nowhere! If the design gets selected by Rowan, then I have to write a sizing-spec sheet to let the pattern writer know what the finished garment needs to be like. Once the pattern writer has completed the pattern it is sent out for knitting, then if I am happy with the finished result it is used for photography before being sent out to a pattern checker.

I have also been putting the finishing touches to the next Rowan Loves brochure, which should hopefully be in the shops this month, so I have been selecting images as well as co-ordinating with the pattern checker. Sometimes it can be very hard to pick the images as my photographers India Hobson and Moy Williams send so many lovely ones. The Rowan Loves brochures came about because we wanted to show just how much we love some of the Rowan classic yarns! The idea of the brochure is that at least half of the designs work a little bit like Lego pieces. For example, we might offer a cardigan in a round neck or a V-neck, or with a choice of sleeve lengths. Each brochure will also use two yarns that have the same tension but give very different looks or feels. For example, we used Kidsilk Haze and Felted Tweed for the first issue and Handknit Cotton and Softknit Cotton will feature in the issue coming out in May.

Wednesday

Sometimes I think people imagine that it's a lovely life as a knitwear designer just playing with yarn, but actually a lot of my day-to-day work is far less interesting! I spend a lot of time writing or checking knitting patterns so much of my day is spent just sitting at a desk. Today I'm writing up some patterns, so I’m working from home. This can sometimes be pretty lonely, but I always love visiting the Rowan Mill in Yorkshire and working on photo shoots – I find so much inspiration spending time with other creative people.

Moleskin from Rowan Chenille

I’ve also been checking and finishing garments today, but I managed to find some time to sit down with a nice cup of coffee and do some of my own knitting before a busy day tomorrow.

Thursday

It’s photo shoot day! At Rowan, each designer tries to use a different photography team to give shoots different looks. Right at the beginning of the season we all meet up to discuss our shoot ideas to make sure that we don’t all want to create the same look. I will then catch up with my choice of photographer and make-up artist to discuss the idea and send them mood boards of the look I would like to try and achieve.

Today is the day that I see it all come together. It’s a pretty early start! The model has her hair and make-up done while the photographer and I walk around the area we are planning to shoot in and decide where we are going to line up the single shots. We need to consider if it’s a close up for a front cover or a wider landscape shoot to give a sense of the space. Then it’s my turn to get the styling ready – this means lots and lots of ironing, as well as art-directing and working with the photographer to make sure that I am happy with the shoot and running backwards and forwards to get the model changed between shots. I think this one went really well and I can’t wait to see the shots.

Jamie jumper in Felted Tweed

Friday

Today I’m checking patterns before publication. I obviously love photo shoots and designing but I do also enjoy the technical pattern writing and checking... Just not for weeks on end!

I found an error in one of the patterns, which is always disappointing, but I’m glad that I found it now rather than a knitter finding it later. I think everyone who works in the industry is devastated when an error is published but all the patterns are written by hand, not on a computer, so unfortunately they do occur. I suggested an amend to correct the issue and then worked closely with the pattern writer to make certain that the pattern is as perfect as possible.

Quickfire Q&A

What tools are always in your knitting bag?

Safety pins, stitch markers and a tape measure – oh, and obviously a notepad to make notes

What was the first thing you ever knitted?

I honestly don’t remember but I do remember as a teenager making a Fair Isle tank top in neon colours!

What was the last thing you knitted?

I am currently trying to work through stash and UFOs (unfinished objects), so rather unexcitingly it was a pair of plain St st socks

What are some of your favourite British yarns?

There are so many where to start! To be honest, as long as it’s a plain-coloured yarn in a fine weight then I am happy!

What do you watch or listen to while you’re knitting?

Radio 4 and Netflix feature pretty heavily

Do you have a go-to knitting reference book?

The Principles of Knitting by June Hemmons Hyatt is a great go-to resource

The Challenge

Rennie Handknits Supersoft Lambswool 4-ply

This month, we challenged our network of designers to create a brand-new pattern using less than 100g of yarn. These are the designers who rose to the challenge

About the designers...

Rachel Anderson

Shadow Pets

This set with its retro sampler look will provide hours of entertainment for baby. I love using Rennie's 4-ply yarn for babywear – the finer weight means I can include just as much detail as I would on an adult garment and the colours are amazing.

Jacqui Harding

Chevron Wonders

I love hats and spring is a nice time to switch to a lighter hat in a bright colour. This hat uses pops of colour and texture to emphasise the gentle chevron stitch pattern and the star-shaped crown decreases are emphasised by stripes.

Lauren Howden

Blue Diamonds

I love to design and knit functional, practical and beautiful items. I wanted this bag to be quirky and just big enough to carry essentials. It is interesting to knit, with different textures and some colourwork. Perfect for an evening out!

About the yarn...

This stunning lightweight yarn is made by J C Rennie & Co, one of Scotland's oldest and few-remaining woollen mills. All of its yarns are made in the Aberdeenshire countryside using traditional methods which have changed little since the Industrial Revolution. Rennie proudly uses more processing oil during carding to protect the lustre of the wool in this relatively cold north-easterly maritime climate. The melange shades inspired by the colours of Scotland are made up of blends of different colours of wool, fused together during carding in one of Rennie's six cast-iron carding sets.

The result is a yarn perfect for colourwork of course but, as our designers have demonstrated here, it also has a lovely crispness, which gives it a great stitch definition for textured stitches.

Hints and tips

- This yarn grows and softens a lot after a soak, so it is essential to wash your swatch. But don't panic if the hat seems a bit too small before it is washed
- This is a longish beanie to allow for a bit of slouch so you can show off the pattern on the crown. You can make it shorter for a closer-fitting beanie by working fewer repeats of rnds 1-3 between the contrast-colour ridges alternating A and B on each round.

Unpick provisional cast on and graft final rnd sts to sts from cast on, being careful not to twist.

Using crochet hook and A, pick up 108
(126, 144, 162) sts and divide evenly among smaller DPNs.

Rnds 1-10: Follow chart 1, repeating chart 4 (4, 5, 6) times around and then
working as far as indicated for your size.

Rnds 11-20: Follow chart 2, repeating
chart 4 (4, 5, 6) times around and then
working as far as indicated for your size.

Rep rnds 1-20 a further 1 (1, 1, 2) time(s).

Rep rnds 1-10 a further 0 (1, 1, 0) time(s).

Using A and B alternately, cast off using three-needle cast off.

Using larger needles and A, cast on 4 sts and work 25 (30, 35, 40) cm of i-cord, alternating A and B on each round. Break yarn and thread through sts, pull tight to fasten. Sew the i-cord to the cast-off edge of the hat, leaving 1cm dangling on each side.

MITTS

With larger needles, cast on 4 sts and work 42 (51, 55, 60) rnds of i-cord, alternating A and B on each rnd.

Using crochet hook and starting 15 rnds from end of i-cord, pick up 27 (36, 40, 45) sts in A and arrange them on one smaller needle ready to work flat.

Row 1: [Kfb] to end. 54 (72, 80, 90) sts

Join to work in the round and pm at start and after 27th (36th, 40th, 45th) st.

Work 10 (15, 15, 20) rnds in St st.

To work a single motif of choice on front and back of mitt: K9 (13, 13, 18) sts is 9 sts wide so first sts may be in background colour). K18 (26, 26, 36) sts and work second motif. K to end of round. Complete motifs as per chart or work 9 rnds even if omitting motifs.

Decreases

Rearrange sts onto 2 DPNs and graft seam with Kitchener st.

Make second mitt as first.

Weave in ends and block to size. Stitch a patch of Velcro to the end of each piece of i-cord so that the two ends can be joined, but will easily come apart if the baby/child gets caught.

Hints and tips

- To ensure that the same colour remains dominant throughout the colourwork, carry MC above CC on the reverse of the work
- The main body of the bag is comprised of textured moss stitch. This is looser than the stocking-stitch areas of the bag. This adds to the texture and allows for a roomier bag. Don't stretch it too tightly when blocking!

How to: cheat at colourwork

Colourwork can be challenging but there are some clever little techniques to make it easier – Debbie's here to show you how it's done!

Words: Debbie Tomkies

Illustrations: Ellen Lindner

SLIP STITCH

Slip-stitch (also called mosaic) patterns are a great way to introduce glorious colours into your knitting projects without the complexities of Fair Isle techniques. It seems almost too good to be true. However, as this technique relies on slipped stitches to create the amazing colour patterns, only one colour is used per row.

Slip-stitch designs normally begin with one or two set-up rounds. These may or may not be shown on the chart or written instructions. These rounds will give you the slipped stitches that form the second colour in the pattern. Cast on in colour A and work set-up rounds as required, following the chart by starting at the lower-right edge, working from right to left.

Change to colour B and follow the chart or written instructions. Stitches shown in colour B are worked as normal – usually a simple knit or purl.

Top tips

- The slipped stitches will be elongated and this can affect gauge, so swatch carefully if you are adding a slip-stitch pattern band or are substituting a slip-stitch pattern for a different stitch. Be careful to ensure that the stranded yarn is not pulled too tight or the work may pull in or pucker

2

Where the chart shows colour A, these stitches are slipped. Stitches are usually slipped purlwise but this will be indicated in the pattern instructions.

3

To change from colour A back to B, take colour B loosely across the back of the work. Work in B until the next colour change.

4

Continue following the chart, slipping all stitches in colour A and working all stitches in colour B.

KNITTING IN THE ROUND

When knitting in the round, after the set-up round(s), rounds are worked in pairs, alternating two rounds using colour A and two rounds using colour B. All rounds may be shown on the chart but, to save space, many charted patterns will show only pairs of rounds and it is assumed that each round is worked twice.

1

Charts for patterns knitted in the round are always worked in the same direction, usually right to left. Colour A is now the working yarn and the stitches shown in colour B will be slipped. This round is worked twice.

After a number of rounds have been worked, it is possible to see the intricate pattern building up, and all this with just one colour per round – magic!

DUPLICATE STITCH

Duplicate stitch (also called Swiss darning) is used decoratively to add small motifs and patterns where intarsia or colourwork would be overly complicated. Duplicate stitch is also a very handy way of covering minor mistakes in colourwork patterns and to strengthen worn areas of knitting.

Duplicate stitch is essentially a means of sewing over an existing knitting stitch or group of stitches. The effect achieved is similar to intarsia and can even be used to recreate small areas of Fair Isle work. However, because it is done once a garment has been finished, it can be used on newly completed or older garments. Tired or dull garments can be given a new lease of life with a quirky motif or random scattering of small patterns. Charity-shop finds can be revamped with a bit of funky stitching and zingy colour.

And on a practical note, it is particularly useful for covering up small stains or marks on that favourite sweater!

Thread a blunt-ended darning needle with a 12-15" length of yarn. Use a blunt bodkin so that the point won't split the fibres of the main fabric. On WS of work, anchor the yarn by threading it under four or five stitches, finishing behind the stitch to be darned over.

A knit stitch is a 'V' shape. Bring the yarn to the RS at the base of the 'V' of the stitch to be covered. Take the needle from R to L under the base of the 'V' of the stitch above the one to be covered.

3

Draw up the yarn so it sits neatly on surface of the fabric without puckering or hanging loosely. This will form the 'leg' of the stitch.

4

Take the thread back down through the bottom of the 'V' of the stitch to be covered (where you began the stitch). Both legs of the 'V' have now been covered, making one duplicate stitch.

5

Repeat until you have covered all stitches required. Check that the stitches are even and that when moving between areas there are no puckered or loose stitches.

For stitches that are close together, run the yarn across WS of the work. However, if sections are more than a few stitches apart, fasten off the yarn at the WS of the work by running it through several stitches then cutting it off and restarting.

Top tips

- When repairing a knit, start stitching outside the weak area and overlap the weak section by at least a couple of stitches on all sides
- If the stitching will be in an area that could cause discomfort (a sock heel, for example), it may be appropriate to split the yarn and stitch using a thinned thread so as not to create excessive bulk
- Duplicate stitch can be worked in the same yarn as the main fabric, or in a decorative yarn. Combine two or more strands if the yarn for stitching is finer than the main yarn to achieve good coverage

Developing my love of slip-stitch, I started looking at stitch patterns that created the Fair Isle look without having to strand. The process of working two right-side and then two wrong-side rows was something I hadn't encountered before and found it really interesting (great for someone who loves knitting but tends to get bored easily). I love the little 'hearts' that appeared!

Hints and tips

- If you prefer to knit with one needle under your arm, use two DPNs rather than the circular needle. Just make sure they are long enough for all of your stitches!
- When casting off at the beg of multiple rows, your yarn will not always be in the right place, so break off (leaving a tail long enough to weave in later) and rejoin the yarn in the right place to carry on

Made in Britain

We wanted to know a bit more about where our yarns come from, so we spoke to the people behind some of our favourite British yarns to find out how their yarn is made and what makes it special

Richard from West Yorkshire Spinners

"We source all of our own raw material, which is then produced into knitting yarn in our state-of-the-art factory based in Keighley, West Yorkshire. This reduces the carbon footprint of our products and also enables us to manufacture at a very low cost. We feel our prices reflect these factors and give us the opportunity to pass on the savings to our customers. It has always been our philosophy that using the best-quality raw materials is of great importance, but also the technical specification of the yarn is paramount too. Our customers invest a great deal of their time in knitting our yarns into garments, therefore it is imperative that the finished article performs to the highest level. It is testament to the quality of our products that we are enjoying a high level of repeat sales. Our major advantage of being one of the last-remaining spinners left in the UK is that we have total control over the products we develop and manufacture."

The varied landscape of the UK gives British wool a unique variety and versatility, however some characteristics are present in all British wools. If you look at the cross section of the fibre, you will see high levels of crimp in the profile that gives the yarn a natural spring and loftiness. This is ideal for hand knitting as it allows air to get between the fibres, making a garment made using the yarn lightweight but also warm, as the air acts as an insulator. These characteristics make British wool one of the best hand-knitting yarns in the world. In comparison, the profile of fibres such as Merino is much flatter, which results in a much heavier, 'dead' garment."

Sonia from Blacker Yarns

"In our increasingly international world, it means so much to know exactly where and how something has been made. To my mind, there is a real link between the appeal of spending a little more to buy quality local goods and the appeal of taking extra time to create something yourself, rather than purchasing it in a shop. Knitters and crafters have an inherent appreciation of quality and slow pleasures, so it should come as no surprise that British yarn is gaining in popularity as people become better informed. All of our Blacker Yarns products are created using 100% British fibre from small farms up and down the country. So when you buy our yarn, you are not only supporting local industry but also British farmers. Because we use only British fibre, we can be completely sure that all of the animals have been raised to comply with strict EU welfare standards. Most wool comes from either Australia or China, where standards are less rigorous."

There is a world of sheepy goodness out there, from Shetland and Bluefaced Leicester to Manx Loaghtan and Teeswater. Each fibre has a different handle, offering a world of discovery to crafters who haven't had the opportunity to experiment with sheep breeds yet. Wensleydale and Teeswater have long, lustrous locks, making their yarn ideal for shawls or draped cardigans, while Jacob is wonderfully dense and bouncy, making it ideal for warm cabled garments. Our yarn is all spun by our sister company, The Natural Fibre Company, in Cornwall. The mill is crammed full of vintage machinery from the 1950s and 60s. Every time I enter the mill, I am powerfully reminded of the weird and wonderful inventions in the Wallace and Gromit films! Raw fleece and fibre go in and, after much humming and whirring, luscious yarn appears on the other side. This process is truly magical and a huge part of our cultural heritage."

Sandra from Jamieson & Smith

"Our yarns are unique because we are carrying forward the tradition of the Shetland Islands. We are known throughout the world for having the best wool for Fair Isle and Shetland lace knitting, and our wool is from Shetland sheep. By supporting us, you are keeping our heritage alive by helping crofters and farmers so that, in turn, we are able to pay them a better price for their wool. I think people are now becoming more aware of where their wool comes from and just because it can say 'Shetland wool' on the ball band it does not mean that it is 100% Shetland wool like ours."

All of our wool comes from the farmers and crofters of Shetland. It is all hand-sorted and hand-graded in our store by Oliver (here on the left), Derek and Jan. We think it's important to grade by hand as each fleece can contain two or three grades – for example, the wool from the sheep's neck is the softest and is usually used for lace-weight yarn. It then is shipped over to the mainland to Bradford where it is spun to the EnCo Environmental Standard, which ensures the highest level of green credentials for our products. It is spun into a wide range of yarn weights and shades depending on the grade."

Roger from Woolyknit

"Woolyknit's home and roots are deep in the Pennine hills, the place where the world's wool-spinning industry started over 200 years ago. The small team at Woolyknit has over 100 years' experience collectively in the wool industry. This knowledge helps to ensure that the yarns we design and produce are of the finest quality and contain wool fibres of the best crimp, micron and length – key factors to ensure that knitting with our yarn is rewarding and enjoyable and will give a finished garment that will, with good care, last many years."

We feel that there has been a resurgence in the popularity of British yarn due to the contemporary design, patterns and colours being developed by a small band of UK producers. Also, the British public has become more discerning as to the origins of the yarn with which they knit and this, in a small way, is helping the British wool industry to flourish."

Erika from Erika Knight

"I live in Brighton, and all of my yarns are spun in Yorkshire at Laxtons mill, a family-run business that has been spinning yarns since 1907. This is not to say that the mill is dark and dreary – in fact, the machines are state-of-the-art with the latest technology. It is important to me that my yarns are fully traceable. I am passionate about the sustainability of wool and keeping all stages of the manufacturing process in Britain, from fleece to finishing. The fleeces used for my yarn are the best that Britain has to offer – Masham and Bluefaced Leicester. People often have a misconception that British wool is itchy and not suitable for garments or for babies but, by using the best British fleeces and modern techniques, we are able to spin really beautiful yarn which is luxurious and deliciously soft. They are comfortable to wear and a pleasure to work with."

Not too long ago, our fabulous British breeds were in danger of dying out and the hill farmers were burning the fleeces as it was not worthwhile for them to take them to market. But now there are many hobbyist sheep farmers keeping rare breeds and producing boutique wool, which is helping to boost awareness of and interest in British wool. We are trying to keep this ethos on a commercially viable scale to promote British sheep breeds and keep them grazing our British landscape. The good news is that wool prices are still increasing and therefore the British wool market is becoming a viable industry again. This is a very exciting zeitgeist to be a part of."

OUR PROCESS UNRAVELLED

Here at West Yorkshire Spinners we are extremely passionate about British Wool and manufacturing. We are one of the few remaining Worsted Spinners left in the UK and we would like to give you an idea of how the wool gets from the sheep on the hillside 'to your needles. Here is a simplified view of our processes;

Stage 1 Rearing

The first stage of WYS production is on the fells and hillsides of Great Britain. The finest breeds are picked to ensure a high quality finished product.

The untreated fleeces are sent to Bradford where they are scoured, carded, combed and finally delivered to WYS in top condition.

Stage 2 Drawing

Our first operation is to prepare the raw material this is called drawing.

The raw material passes through pins on a number of machines (similar to combing your hair) to straighten the fibres so they are parallel and even.

At WYS we have 4 operations of drawing, after the final passage we have reduced the wool to suitable weight for the spinning machine.

Stage 3 Spinning

The next process is spinning - this operation has been performed in different ways for centuries using the same basic principle.

At WYS we produce thousands of kilos per week using sophisticated, high tech machinery. The purpose of spinning is to reduce the thickness of the wool. To achieve this the fibres are drafted out to produce a single yarn of suitable thickness

Stage 4 Winding

After spinning we wind the yarn onto cones removing any imperfections such as thick and uneven areas or vegetable matter.

The next process is folding which involves twisting single spun yarns together to make different categories of wool for example 3PLY - 4PLY etc.

Stage 5 Dyeing

We have recently made a large investment in a specialised yarn dyeing facility and lab, this gives us the luxury of being able to develop our own colours and quickly react to changing trends in the market. This includes space/dyeing machinery, these environmentally conscious machines allow up to 6 colours to be applied to the yarn.

Stage 6 Finishing

Finally the yarn is ready to be balled or reeled into hanks and banded ready for knitting!

Her Babyship

Elanor King's adorable bolero and socks are knitted using a super-soft and brightly coloured sock yarn

Designed by Elanor King

My delightfully determined daughter has always known just how she likes things to be settled.

Even before she could speak, she was perfectly capable of making her wishes known. Devoted servant that I am, I was (almost) always happy to oblige Her Babyship. This bolero is quick to put on, with no fiddly fastenings or overlong sleeves to annoy a busy baby. The matching socks will be off and across the room before you can blink, but they're oh so cute, and quick to make too!

- If you are not a fan of the knit-twice cast on, Judy's magic cast on is a good substitute
- The method used to create the heel of the booties makes double wraps around some of the sts
- The picot edging on the socks is a great place to insert some elastic, which may help in keeping Her Babyship's socks on her tootsies

Stitch patterns

Knit twice cast on

Using a DPN, loosely cast on 6 sts (half the number of sts required). With another DPN, knit each st, but instead of jumping the old stitch off the end of the LH needle, slip it onto a third DPN instead. You will end up with 6 new sts on needle 2 and the original 6 sts on needle 3. Knit each of the sts on ndl 3 in the usual way. Join and continue in the round. 12 sts

Three-needle cast off

Place the sts for the front of the shoulder onto a needle. Place the sts for the back of the shoulder onto a second needle, ensuring that both needles are pointing in the same direction (i.e. either both neckwards or both armwards). Hold both needles in LH with fronts together. Use a third needle as RH needle. *Place tip of RH needle through the first st on each of the LH needles as if to knit, and knit both sts together. Rep from * to make a second st. Pass the first st over the second st. Rep from  to end of row.

Break yarn and fasten off.

Knitted picot edging (even number of sts and worked in the round)

Change to CC yarn.

Rnd 1 (RS): Knit.

Knit 4 more rnds.

Next Rnd: *K2tog, yo; rep from * to end of rnd.

Knit 5 rnds even.

Remove any markers.

Leave a tail four times the length of the circumference of the edging and cut the yarn. Thread the tail through the darning needle. Fold the picot edging in half along perforated rnd of yos. Looking at the back of the work, each st on the needles will correspond with a purl bump within the same column of sts that was made in Rnd 1 of the edging. Using a darning needle, *sl next st from LH needle k-wise, then push darning needle through from bottom to top of corresponding CC purl bump; rep from * to end of rnd. Break yarn and fasten off.

Designed by

Browneyedbabs

I really enjoyed watching the Commonwealth games when they were in Glasgow last year. I absolutely fell in love with the handsome Scottie dogs who led the athletes out in the opening ceremony and was inspired to write a pattern for a cuddly Scottie. The wonderful Wendy Ramsdale yarn is an excellent choice for this pattern – it is very soft and cuddly with a real warmth. It has a slight halo, which makes the dog look nice and furry Rnd 6-35: Knit 30 rnds.

Cast off leaving a long tail for sewing on later.

Finishing: Sew on the tail at the end of the body. Sew the legs on firmly. Position the legs about 3 sts apart on the underside close to the front and back of the body without being on the curve of the bottom or neck. Sew the ears on inside the second short row wedge on the head. Fold them along the cast off edge to make an 'L' shape with the longest edge being towards the centre of the head. There are 7 sts on the top of the head between my dog's ears. 🐾

Face

I pulled the eyes in a little to give the dog a more expressive face (this is not essential). Thread a doll-making needle (these are very long) with about a metre of yarn. Go into the dog under the chin where the stitch won't be seen and back out just beneath the first eye. Put the needle back in, making a tiny stitch, and bring it out just beneath the second eye. Make another tiny stitch, bringing the needle back out under the chin close to where you started. Pull on the ends of the yarn till the eye sockets are drawn in enough, tie a knot in the yarn ends and hide the ends inside the dog.

For eyebrows, cut lengths of yarn a few inches long (I wound yarn around two fingers and cut along the top). Thread a wide-eyed needle and make about five tassels above the eyes. Trim the eyebrow hair so that all of the threads are roughly the same length.

Cut a nose shape from black felt and pin into place. Don't sew on till the beard is done. For the beard, cut lengths of yarn about 12" long (I wound yarn around the long edges of a paperback book and cut it along one side). Again, thread a sewing needle and make two rows of tassels evenly along the muzzle for about 4.5cm above the nose. I made one row of tassels along the sides of the nose and another double row underneath the nose. Trim the beard to be roughly the same length as the knitted face. Sew the nose on when you are happy with the beard.

Special abbreviations

M1l (make 1 left): insert the LH needle from front to back under the strand of yarn between the st just worked and the next st on the LH needle. Knit this strand through the back loop.

M1r (make 1 right): insert the LH needle from back to front under the strand of yarn between the st just worked and the next st on the LH needle. Knit this strand through the front loop.

w&t (wrap and turn): on a K row, sl next st p-wise, bring yarn to the front, return slipped st to LH needle, turn work. On a P row, sl next st p-wise, bring yarn to the back, return slipped st to LH needle, turn work.

I loved Babs's doggie as soon as I saw him but I couldn't stop thinking about the idea of him in a little coat. The longer he sat on my desk waiting to be photographed, the more I thought about knitting him one until the urge became too strong – I had to give in!

A unisex cabled cowl with an extra twist – it has no 'wrong' side as the cables appear identical on both sides, making it perfect for flinging on in a hurry to brave the elements! It can be worn as a tube (ideal for under a motorcycle helmet) or with the top turned down

C8BP (Cable 8 backwards): Sl 4 sts on to CN, hold at back, [k2, p2] from LH needle, [k2, p2] from CN.

C8FP (Cable 8 forwards): Sl 4 sts on to CN, hold at front, [k2, p2] from LH needle, [k2, p2] from CN.

Hints and tips

- When blocking the cowl place a towel between the two layers to help it dry more quickly

Start knitting...

Cast on 132 sts using the cable cast on. Join to work in the rnd, being careful not to twist. Pm to mark beg of rnd. Work cable pattern in full from chart or written directions, repeating sts around. Cast off in pattern.

Finishing: Weave in ends and block to dimensions given in schematic.

Stitch patterns

Cable cast-on

After 2 sts have been cast on, insert the tip of the RH needle between sts (rather than into first st) to cast on further sts.

This month, our editor Kate took six of the most delightful and interesting British yarns – including several which we've used in this issue – to her own knitting group. The Wednesday group has been rather nomadic of late, having lost its regular venue when the local yarn shop closed last year. However, the bonds of knitters are not so easily broken! The group has been meeting regularly at a host of different venues in the city for the past couple of months, looking for a perfect new home. If you're in Manchester and want to come along, drop Kate an email – kate.heppell@practicalpublishing.co.uk – and she'll point you in the right direction. This lot is a lively bunch and are more than happy to let their opinions be known, so they're the perfect group for a really honest review.

Finishing: Block work to size. Join left shoulder and neckband seam. Join side and sleeve seams. Sew sleeves into armholes, matching the centre of the sleeve to the shoulder seam. Sew in sleeves. Darn in all yarn ends.

Care advice: Hand-wash in cool water using a liquid wool wash. Spin dry. Do not tumble dry. Spread to dry on a towel or drying rack, hand-pressing the garment to the correct shape and size. Garments may be hung to dry on a hanger or over a clothes or ceiling airer once they have been spun, but with a hanger you may get hanger marks at the shoulders and the garment may 'grow' if too damp before hanging. With airers, you should move the garment a little several times during drying to avoid marks. Stocking-stitch garments may benefit from light pressing (never press rib areas as they will lose their stretch!). Store folded. 🌿

Cast off.

Back (worked in 2 sections)

First section

Cast on 125 sts.

Row 1 (RS): K1, *p1, k1; rep from * to end.

This row forms moss st.

Cont in moss st until work measures 34cm.

Cast off in patt.

Second section

Cast on 125 sts and work 6 rows in moss st as given for first section.

Next Row (Buttonholes): Patt 29 sts, *k2tog tbl, yo, k2tog, patt 28 sts; rep from * to end.

Next Row: Patt to end, working Kfb into yo from previous row.

Cont in moss st until work measures 34cm.

Cast off in patt.

Making up: Sew in all yarn ends neatly.

Lay front RS down and place back sections on top with RS uppermost.

Overlap back sections with buttonholes on top. Sew backs together at side edges to secure overlap. Sew backs to front.

Sew on buttons.

Your work needs to be relaxed by steaming to give a more professional finish.

With your iron on a steam setting, and work on a flat surface, gently hover about a centimetre over your work, allowing the steam to relax the stitches. You may block your work if you prefer. A word of caution – over-pressing can ‘glaze’ the fabric, so be careful not to heavily press work. If you are not confident then use your tension square as a test piece first. 🧶

Finding Inspiration Online

With so much inspiration available on the web, it's hard to know where to start looking. These are Kate's picks for the best of the net this month

Kirstyn at Love Knitting

If you're following any knitting designers on Twitter or Facebook, chances are you'll have picked up on some recent problems with new rules for online pattern sales. We admit to a little confusion, so we asked Kirstyn Langford at Love Knitting, who has played a big part in finding a solution, to give us the low down.

For those who aren't familiar with Love Knitting, what is the website all about?

We are an online knitting store and community with everything a knitter could need to make their dream project! As well as over 30,000 patterns, we stock over 60 yarn brands, from big names like Debbie Bliss and Rowan, to brands like Lang Yarns and Loopy Mango that you might not have tried. Our aim is simple: work every day to keep our customers smiling.

What is your role at Love Knitting?

As Digital Pattern Manager my role covers everything and anything digital pattern related – from finding designers and brands that want to sell with us to working with and promoting those that already do. In October 2014 we launched Love Knitting Designers, a site where independent designers can upload and sell their patterns. Hundreds of the world's most talented independent designers now sell their own patterns with us.

We've heard that a lot of people who sell their patterns online have been hit with a change in the tax rules. Can you explain what the new rules are?

At the start of this year the European Union changed the rules that determine how VAT is charged on the sale of digital services like PDF knitting patterns. VAT must now be collected for any cross-border sales to customers in the EU at the VAT rate of the country in which the customer is located (previously it would have been at the VAT rate of the seller's country). One of the biggest changes is that there is no longer a VAT threshold for cross-border sales. For designers, this means selling through a website that will handle VAT for them or registering for VAT themselves.

What are you doing to help designers to continue selling their patterns in the EU?

We handle VAT for designers so they don't have to. At the beginning of the year, we teamed up with Ravelry to give its designers the option to sell to EU customers through us. For those who have chosen this route, when an EU customer buys a pattern on Ravelry, they will check out and pay on Love Knitting so we can deal with the VAT on behalf of the designer and Ravelry.

Do you have any top tips for designers who are struggling to get to grips with the new rules?

Speak to other designers and your accountant (if you have one!) and decide what the best option is for you. VAT registering may be the best bet for your business if you can handle the admin this entails. For many, though, it's just not feasible and selling through a website that will handle the VAT for them is their best bet.

You must have seen thousands of patterns in the past couple of months – are there any that you fancy knitting for yourself when you have the time?

So many! Lots of my friends are having babies this year and I absolutely adore OGE Knitwear Designs's patterns. She's recently designed the Cathedral Baby Blanket and I'm hoping to knit this for one of 2015's new additions. For a bit of selfish knitting: Anna Ravenscroft's Baby Blue Sweater (above), Woolly Wormhead's Kernmantle (left) and Jenise Reid's Net Cowl are all on the list!

To see all patterns available on Love Knitting, go to www.loveknitting.com/knitting-patterns or follow the team on Twitter at @LK_designers

Finding the Time

"Where do you find the time to knit?" It's a question I'm sure that a lot of us are tired of answering. Sometimes it's delivered with a rather superior tone, with something of a suggestion that the person asking the question is far too busy and important to do something so trivial as knit themselves a hat. For me, someone may just as well ask me how I find time to breathe! Knitting isn't something that I find time for, it just seems to happen without me thinking about it. Where others might spend an evening in the pub sitting and chatting to their friends with their hands idle, I'll take my knitting. I wouldn't dream of going on even a short bus or train ride without my knitting. A popular radio DJ recently expressed surprise to see a young woman knitting on the tube in London at 10pm as if she was some kind of strange anomaly – that could easily have been me!

I've been thinking, though – maybe I should start to 'make time'. I love those evenings where I find myself with a couple of hours to sit down in front of the TV, snuggled up warm with my knitting on my lap and my little cat purring away next to me, but they're rare. If I'm lucky, I can spend half an hour or so working on a project of an evening, but that doesn't happen as often as I would like – mostly my knitting happens in tiny bursts of 10 minutes here or there. As a result, I have a drawer in my bedroom full of unfinished projects because after a month or so of working on something, I feel the need to start something new, whether I've finished my last project or not! If I have a deadline – for example, if a sample needs to be finished for a photo shoot or a birthday present – I'll force myself to find the time, but if it's just for me, it gets put on the back burner.

So, I'm making a concerted effort to set aside one night a week where I want to finish work on time, go home, get my dinner and sit down with a 'me' project. This month I finished a Fair Isle hat for myself and immediately cast on a new jumper in a totally sumptuous hand-dyed yarn from Eden Cottage Yarns. It's a real treat to be knitting in such a special yarn, and I'm enjoying every single stitch. The thing is, it begins with about an acre of stocking stitch at 300 stitches per round. Yeah, I know. I'm generally pretty relaxed about my weight but casting on for a new garment is one of those few times that I wish I was a little bit smaller! I've just come to the end of the first skein of yarn and I'm loving it, but I'm expecting it to be a long slog. It's entirely possible that it won't be finished for a few months, but I'm looking forward to wearing it, so that'll spur me on. I'm currently planning my trip to Edinburgh Yarn Festival in March (www.edinyarnfest.com) so with any luck, if I make enough time this month, you might see me wearing my new jumper there!

One of the things I love to do when designing is to make patterns that work all ways up. I got the idea for this pattern when I realised how pretty the decreases looked on the back of something I was knitting. I turned the pattern into a scarf, which alternates stitches from one side to the other to make a zigzag pattern. The idea makes me think of the title of Joni Mitchell's song Both Sides Now!

Those of you who follow me on Twitter may have seen some of my efforts at learning to sew lately. As far as I can tell, it is a completely arcane art that requires untold levels of concentration and precision. And pins, which tend to get lost or jabbed into body parts! I came up with this wristlet pincushion design to keep them (and me) safe

If you love sewing as much as you love knitting, Elanor King's Clematis Wristlets could be the perfect quick project for you!

Start knitting...

Trace the outline of the milk-bottle cap onto the sponge. Cut out a cylinder of sponge. Trim one end of the sponge into a dome shape. Stuff the sponge into the milk-bottle cap, dome end upwards. With MC and smaller DPNs, cast on 4 sts. Distribute between 4 DPNs. Join to work in the rnd, being careful not to twist. Pm to mark beg of rnd.

Rnd 1: *Kfb; rep from * to end. 8 sts

Hints and tips

- It's important that the casing for the stuffed bottle cap is tight so that the internal structure doesn't move around during use
- The milk-bottle cap is also vital – it is there to provide structure and also to prevent one from pricking one's wrist!

Finishing: Block petals and cuff gently to measurements. Gently steam the flower centre, as pinning out will not be possible. Once dry, weave in the ends on the cuff and the ends at the tip of the leaves. Use the tails at the base of the leaves to attach them to the flower centre, spacing them evenly. Use the tail at the base of the flower centre to attach it to the cuff. Sew around the edge of the centre to secure it. Sew the poppers on at the ends of the cuffs or in the appropriate position for your wrist size. 🌸

The BASICS

Whether you're new to knitting or just need a quick refresher, these pages will tell you all you need to know about the essential techniques

Cast on

Step 1
Make a long-tailed slip knot and place it on the needle. Hold the needle in your right hand. Pass the ball end of yarn over the index finger, under the middle and over the third finger. Holding the free end in the left hand, wrap it around the left thumb from front to back.

Step 2
Insert the needle through the thumb loop from front to back.

Step 3
Wrap the ball end under and around the needle.

Step 4
Pull a new loop through the thumb loop by passing the thumb loop over the end of the needle. Remove thumb and tighten the new loop on the needle by pulling the free end. Continue in this way until you have cast on the required number of stitches.

Knit

Hold the needle with the cast on stitches in your left hand, and insert the right-hand needle into the front of the stitch from left to right.

Step 2
Pass the yarn under and around the right-hand needle.

Step 3
Pull the new loop on the right-hand needle through the stitch on the left-hand needle.

Step 4
Slip the stitch off the left-hand needle. One knit stitch is completed.

Purl

Hold the needle with the cast on stitches in your left hand, and insert the right-hand needle into the front of the stitch from right to left.

Step 2
Pass the yarn over and around the right-hand needle.

Step 3
Pull the new loop on the right-hand needle through the stitch on the left-hand needle.

Step 4
Slip the stitch off the left-hand needle. One stitch is completed.

Cast off

Step 1
Knit two stitches. Insert the tip of the left-hand needle into the front of the first stitch on the right-hand needle.

Step 2
Lift this stitch over the second stitch and off the needle.

Step 3
One stitch is left on the right-hand needle.

Step 4
Knit the next stitch and lift the second stitch over this and off the needle. Continue in this way until one stitch remains on the right-hand needle. Break yarn, thread the tail through the last stitch and pull tight.

K2tog

Knit to where the decrease is to be, insert the right-hand needle knitwise through the next two stitches and knit them as one stitch.

P2tog

Purl to where the decrease is to be, insert the right-hand needle purlwise through the next two stitches and purl them as one stitch.

SSK

Slip two stitches knitwise one at a time from left-hand needle to right-hand needle.

Step 2
Insert the left-hand needle from left to right through the fronts of these two stitches and knit together as one stitch.

Yarn over

Knit
Bring the yarn forward (y fwd or yf) between the two needles. Knit the next stitch, taking the yarn over the right needle.

Purl
Take the yarn back over the right-hand needle and forward between the needles to bring yarn round needle (yrn). Purl the next stitch.

Rib a
Bring yarn forward between the needles, back over the right-hand needle and forward again between the needles – yarn forward and round needle (yfrn). Purl next stitch.

Rib b
Take the yarn back over the right-hand needle – yarn over needle (yon). Knit the next stitch.

Make one

Step 1
Knit to where the increase is to be made. Insert the tip of the left-hand needle under the running thread from back to front.

Step 2
Knit this loop through the front to twist it.

Step 3
If you are working M1 on a purl row, you purl the loop through the front.

Instructions taken from The Knitter's Bible, priced £14.99, available from www.rucraft.co.uk

KNITTING A TENSION SQUARE

1. Cast on the number of stitches given in the pattern to measure 10cm plus half as many again.
2. Work 15cm in stocking stitch and cast off loosely.
3. Use the same method you will use to press the finished item to block your tension square (see below).
4. Lay your fabric on a flat surface without stretching it. Use a ruler to measure 2.5cm in from one edge and mark with a pin.
5. Measure 10cm horizontally from the first pin and mark with another pin.
6. Avoiding the cast on and cast off edges, which may distort the fabric, mark the same measurements again, vertically.
7. Work out your tension by counting the number of stitches and rows between the pins. If there are more than the pattern states, the square is too small: make another square with a needle a size larger. If there are fewer stitches than stated in the pattern, the square is too big: make another square using a needle a size smaller.

Mattress stitch

To join two pieces of stocking stitch lay the pieces flat, right sides up and together. Secure the pieces together by bringing the needle through from back to front at the bottom of the right-hand piece, taking the needle through the left-hand piece from back to front and back under the right-hand piece and out at the front. This makes a figure-of-eight with the yarn and gives a neat edge.

Take the needle across and under the left-hand piece and bring it through to the front from the same hole as the securing stitch. Now take the needle back to the right-hand piece and bring it up under the horizontal strands of the two stitches above the first entry point. Take the needle back to the left-hand piece, insert the needle back into the stitch and take it up under the next two horizontal strands. Pull up the stitches to tighten them and draw the two edges together. Continue until seam is complete.

GRAFTING (KITCHENER STITCH)

Grafting creates a seamless and invisible join at the toe

First divide the stitches equally between two DPNs. Cut the yarn leaving enough to graft the stitches with. Thread the yarn onto a darning needle. Insert the needle purlwise into the first stitch on the front needle and pull the yarn through. Insert the needle knitwise into the first stitch on the back needle and pull the yarn through.

Insert the needle knitwise into the first stitch on the front needle and slip the stitch off the needle. Insert the needle purlwise into the next stitch on the front needle and pull the yarn through. Insert the needle purlwise into the first stitch on the back needle and slip this stitch off the needle. Insert the needle knitwise into the next stitch on the back needle and pull the yarn through.

Repeat from * to * until all the stitches have been worked.

Blocking

The process of pinning and pressing knitted pieces is called blocking and it will make your finished projects look as good as possible. First sew in yarn ends, then steam or wet press as appropriate.

Steam pressing

This method is used for natural yarns or those with a high wool content. Care should be taken with long-haired fibres such as mohair and angora, or items with textured stitches, to ensure the steaming process does not matt the fibres or flatten the pattern. Check the information on the ball band and test-press a tension square first if you have any doubts.

Use rustproof large-headed pins to pin out each piece to its exact measurements, wrong side up, on your ironing board or blocking board. Lay a clean cotton cloth over your knitting to protect it.

Set the iron to an appropriate heat setting for your yarn. Hold the iron close to the cotton cloth and allow the steam to permeate. Do not press the iron onto the knitted fabric. Remove the cloth and allow knitting to dry before unpinning.

Wet pressing

This method is suitable for synthetics and fancy yarns. Pin out your knitting as for steam pressing. Wet a clean cloth and squeeze out the excess water until it is just damp. Place the cloth over your knitting and leave to dry. Remove the cloth when it is completely dry and ensure the knitted pieces are also dry before unpinning them.

We were very excited last year to hear about the launch of Wendy Ramsdale – a brand-new yarn from T. B. Ramsden's mill that's made from 100% British wool. In a handy DK weight and available in a wide range of colours, it's opened up the doors for lots more people to knit British!

We've got seven bundles of Ramsdale in various colours, which is enough to knit the entire set of gorgeous accessory patterns we've also included.

* Work 2 rows in G st over the 24 (24, 26, 28, 28) band sts, work 2 rows in G st only over the outermost 12 (12, 13, 14, 14) sts. Note: When turning mid piece, slip first st. Tighten thread and continue as before. This is done to avoid holes in the transitions *. (1st row = from WS).

Repeat from * to * once every 4cm until piece measures 19 (21, 24, 27, 30) cm, then repeat from * to * once every other cm until finished measurements.

AT THE SAME TIME, when piece measures 16 (17, 20, 23, 25) cm, cast on new sts at the end of every row from WS (towards the side of sleeve): [6 sts] 2 (2, 3, 3, 3) times, [8 sts] 1 (1, 1, 2, 3) times and 21 (22, 22, 25, 26) sts 1 time. 84 (89, 99, 115, 127) sts for shoulder/sleeve. Work inc sts in St st.

When all sts have been cast on, continue in St st and G st as before while AT THE SAME TIME also working the outermost 10 sts on sleeve in G st.

When piece measures 27 (29, 33, 37, 40) cm, insert a marker in the middle on top of the shoulder. Slip the 24 (24, 26, 28, 28) band sts towards mid front on a stitch holder. Cast on 2 new sts at the end of row from RS (towards neck), repeat inc on next row towards neck. 64 (69, 77, 91, 103) sts on needle

Right-front piece

Cast on and work as left front piece but reversed. In addition, cast off for button holes (see special instructions on page 28). Note: Slip sts on a stitch holder after the

Back piece

Work left-front piece onto circular needle, cast on 16 (16, 18, 20, 20) sts (= back of neck) and work right-front piece onto circular needle. 144 (154, 172, 202, 226) sts. Measure piece from markers on shoulders. Continue in St st and G st at the end on each sleeve back and forth on needle.

When piece measures 8.5 (9.5, 10, 10, 11) cm, beg to cast off sleeve sts. Cast off at beg of every row in each side as follows: 21 (22, 22, 25, 26) sts 1 time, 8 sts 1 (1, 1, 2, 3) times and 6 sts 2 (2, 3, 3, 3) times = 62 (70, 76, 84, 90) sts on needle. Continue in St st with 1 edge st in each side.

When piece measures approximately 26 (28, 32, 36, 39) cm, fold the piece double at the markers on the shoulders and make sure that the back piece is as long as the front piece down to rows in G st, switch to 2.5mm needles and work 6 rows in G st, then cast off.

Making up: Sew the sleeve and side seams inside 1 edge st. Sew on buttons.

Hood

Knit up approximately 102 (106, 112, 118, 122) sts (incl sts from stitch holders at the front). Note: If more/fewer sts have been knitted up, dec/inc evenly on 1st row. Continue in G st over all sts while AT THE SAME TIME working short rows in each side every other cm, as set between * and * above. Cast off when hood measures approximately 21 (23, 25, 27, 28) cm. Sew hood neatly together at the top – sew in the front loop of outermost st to avoid a chunky seam.

Crochet border

Crochet a border around the entire jacket. Beg at the bottom on right-front piece and crochet with yarn held double and 3mm crochet hook as follows:

Row 1: 1 dc, * 3 ch, 1 tr in 1st ch, skip 0.5 cm, 1 dc in next st; repeat from * across. Repeat around the openings on sleeves.

Slip the outermost 12 (13, 13, 15) sts in each side on a stitch holder. Work 4 (4.5, 5.5, 6.5) cm in St st over the middle 10 (12, 12, 12) sts. Slip sts from stitch holders back on needle and knit up 10 (11, 13, 16) sts on each side of mid piece. 54 (60, 64,

74) sts on needle

K every row over all sts for 3 (4, 5, 5) cm while, at the same time, after 1.5 (2, 2.5, 3) cm, dec on every other row as follows until completed: Dec 1 st at the beg and the end of row and k2tog on each side of the 2 mid sts. Cast off and sew together mid under foot and continue up mid back in front loop of outermost sts to avoid a chunky seam.

Ties

Cut three 1m strands of light yellow, twine them tightly together, fold them double and they will twine again. Tie a knot in each end. Thread the tie up and down through the eyelet holes on the slipper.

THUMB (OR BACKWARDS-LOOP) CAST ON

Backwards-loop cast on uses a single needle. It is ideal for soft edgings and lace projects where a delicate, understated edge is called for. It forms the basis of other cast ons, such as tubular cast on, and is used when casting on stitches part way through a row for buttonholes or fancy stitches.

Make a slipknot and place it on the needle. Holding the needle in the RH and the working yarn (the end attached to the ball) in LH, take the left thumb behind, under the yarn and forward, looping the yarn over the left thumb.

2

Where the yarn loops over the thumb, insert the RH needle from front to back, under the front of the loop and over the top of the back of the loop.

3

Carefully remove your thumb from the loop and gently draw the loop tight.

Work 8 rows in garter stitch.

Cast off.

Making up: Begin with the head and body of the bunny. Sew the seam – this runs down the centre back. Leave the base open to stuff. Stuff the head first, making it firm and round. Take a needle threaded with matching yarn and, beginning at the marked row for the neck, weave the yarn in and out of each st all the way around, starting and ending at the seam. Pull up quite firmly and this will form the head and neck. Secure well at the seam. Continue to stuff the body, then close the base. Embroider the rabbit's facial features using black DK yarn.

Pleat the base of the ears then sew an ear to each side of the top of the head. Sew the arm seams, leaving the top open. Stuff the arms, close the seam and then attach to the shoulders of the bunny on each side. Sew the leg seams and stuff, making sure that you fill out the foot part to give a nice shape. Close the seams then sew the legs to each side of the bunny. Sew the side seams and crotch of the onesie, remembering to leave a gap at the top on each side to form armholes. Slip onto the bunny. Catch the shoulder seams on each side to form the neck opening. Thread some co-ordinating ribbon through the stitches around the centre of the onesie and tie in a pretty bow at the front. Make a small bow from the same ribbon and sew to the top of the head, in between the ears. Embroider flowers in lazy daisy stitch on the front of the onesie if desired.

BLOCK (make 5)

Each block has six sides. Start with the monster face, then pick up sts and continue with the next side until all six sides have been worked.

Monster-face side

Cast on 22 sts in yarn A.
Work rows 1-28 of monster-face chart.
Loosely cast off all sts.
Tooth: With top of head facing upside down, count from left edge (when looking at piece upside down) to 6th st of mouth line. Beg in 6th st, pu 4 sts in 6th through 3rd sts.
Using A, knit 5 rows (garter st).
Cast off all sts.

Blue-stripes side

Using yarn C, with RS facing you, pu 22 sts from cast-off edge of monster-face side.
This counts as Row 1 of the stripe patt.
Work in St st, alternating 4 rows in yarn C and 4 rows in yarn D until you have 7 total stripes (you'll end with a yarn C stripe).
Loosely cast off all sts.

Polka-dot side

Using E, with RS facing, pu 22 sts from cast-off edge of blue-stripes side. This counts as Row 1 of chart.
Knit rows 2-28 of polka-dot chart.
Loosely cast off all sts.

Black-and-white stripes side

Using A, with RS facing, pu 22sts from cast-off edge of polka-dot side. This counts as Row 1 of the stripe patt.
Work in St st, alternating 4 rows in yarn
A and 2 rows in yarn E until you have 9 stripes (you'll end with 4 rows of A stripe).
Loosely cast off all sts.

Green textured-stitch side

Using yarn B, with RS facing you, pu 23 sts from right-hand side of blue-stripes side.

Row 1: Knit all sts. (For the first rep this is the pu row.)

Row 2: Knit all sts.

Row 3: K1, *sl 1 wyib, k1; rep from *.

Row 4: K1, *sl 1 wyif, k1; rep from *.

Rows 5 & 6: Knit all sts.

Row 7: K2, *sl 1 wyib, k1; rep from * to last st, k1.

Row 8: K2, *sl 1 wyif, k1; rep from * to last st, k1.

Rep rows 1-8 until side measures 10cm.
Loosely cast off all sts.

Ripple-stitch side

Using D, pu 22 sts from left-hand side of blue-stripes side.

Purl 1 row.

Row 1: K6, *p2, k6; rep from *.

Row 2: K1, *p4, k4; rep from * to last 5
sts, p4, k1.

Row 3: P2, *k2, p2; rep from *.

Row 4: P1, *k4, p4; rep from * to last 5
sts, k4, p1.

Row 5: K2, *p2, k6; rep from * to last 4
sts, p2, k2.

Row 6: P6, *k2, p6; rep from *.

Row 7: P1, k4, p4; rep from * to last 5 sts, k4, p1.

Row 8: K2, *p2, k2; rep from *.

Row 9: K1, *p4, k4; rep from * to last 5
sts, p4, k1.

Row 10: P2, *K2, P6; rep from * to last 4
sts, k2, p2.

Rep rows 1-10 until side measures 10cm.
Loosely cast off all sts.

Finishing: Weave in all ends. Block as desired. Use st-to-st mattress st to sew cast-off edge of monster-face side to cast-off edge of black-and-white stripes side. Sew the two sides into a ring to create a cube, using row-to-row mattress st on sides where sts run parallel to each other and ladder st on sides where sts run in different directions. Stuff the cube, aiming for as square a shape as you can get. It's helpful to push the stuffing into each corner to get your cube to look more square. If you prefer, you can buy foam squares that measure 4" to get a good square block. Once you've stuffed your blocks, sew up the last side.

Blanket

Make 50 hexagons following basic hexagon instructions. To assemble, arrange hexagons in desired colour arrangement. Sew together using your favourite method of seaming. See diagram for placement of motifs from row to row.

Finishing: For a crochet border, work 1 row of dc around the entire outside edge of the blanket, working 3 dc in each outward point of hexagons, and dc3tog at inward points. Join with sl st. Cut yarn. Weave in any loose ends. For a knitted border, with RS facing you, beg at outside-bottom edge of first hexagon and, using a DPN (or a long circular needle if desired), pu 15 sts along each outer side of the hexagons. As needle gets full, cast off sts, beg at opposite end of DPN that you're using to pick up sts. To do this, use a second strand of yarn, cast off all sts pw. Note that the first st you cast off will be the first st you picked up for the border.
